

Reveal

Reveal Panels are a flat interlocking wall or soffit panels.

They interlock in a tongue and groove manner so concealing any fixings.

Can span battens/rails at 600mm centres.

Various flashings are available to make up a complete wall or soffit panel system.

0.9mm Greencoat S280

Standard Options include quarry grey - Nordic Night Black - Metallic Dark Silver.

1mm Aluminium

Standard Options include Zinc and dark zinc patina, copper oxide and copper patina.

1mm ZM Silesia (Zinc)

Options include Pre-Aged & Carbon

1mm NedZinc (Zinc)

Options include Neo, Noir and Nuance Green, Blue & Red.

Walls & Soffit Panel System

Reveal Wall & Soffit Panels

Panels can have a shadow gap of between 0-20mm

A close-up photograph showing two panels meeting at a diagonal joint. The panels are a light, textured grey color. A dark shadow is cast into the gap between the panels, illustrating the shadow gap mentioned in the text. The lighting is soft, highlighting the texture of the panels.

Reveal Panel Flashings

Various standard flashings are available to suit reveal panels when installed horizontally or vertically, these can be found on pages ,,,,